CHRISTCHURCH

You'll find the Southern Lakes region in the southwest corner of New Zealand's South Island.

Queenstown sits on the 45th parallel, nestled on the shores of Lake Wakatipu below The Remarkables mountain range. There are multiple daily flight connections from New Zealand's main centres of Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch. Alternatively driving within New Zealand is a great way to explore and see more of the stunning landscapes. Either self drive by car or campervan, or catch a scenic coach tour or guided limousine tour.

SYDNEY

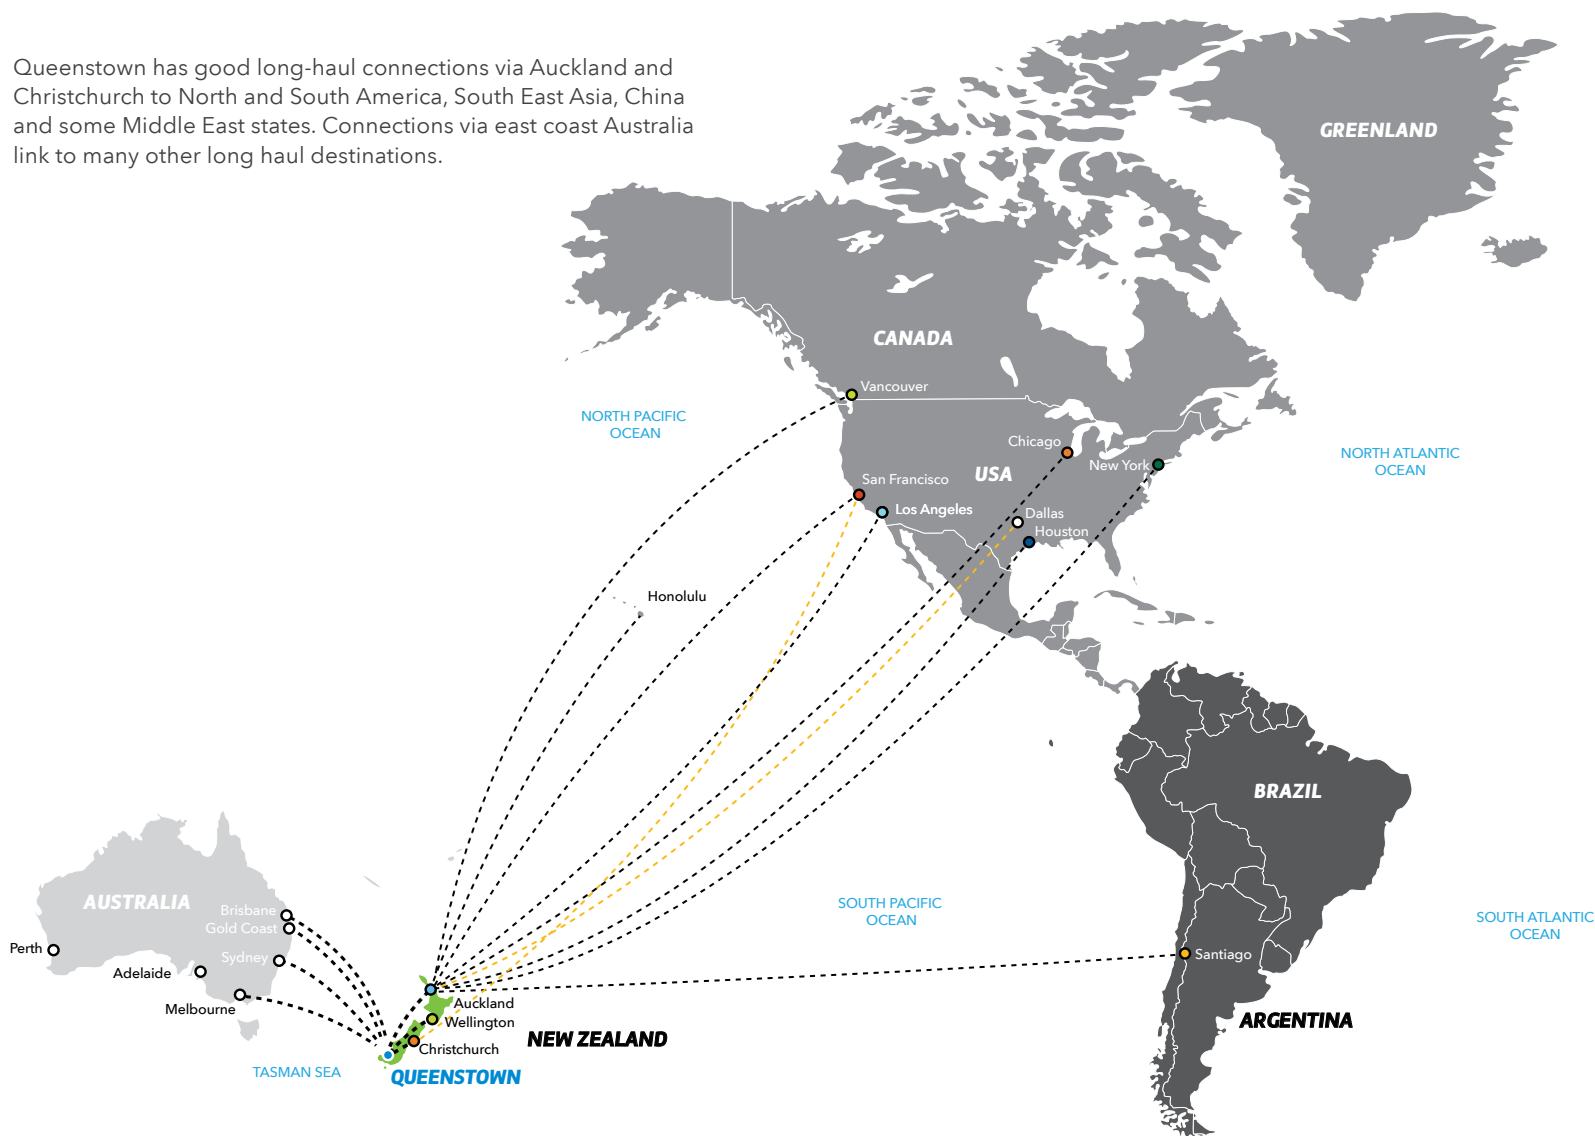

From the East Coast of Australia, Queenstown is well serviced with direct flights by four major airlines:

Air New Zealand, Qantas, Virgin Australia and Jetstar.

There are international direct flights from Sydney, Brisbane, Melbourne and the Gold Coast throughout the year and domestically there are several connections each day from New Zealand's main centres of Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch. Domestic and trans-Tasman flight schedules are boosted into Queenstown for the busy winter season.

Long-haul routes

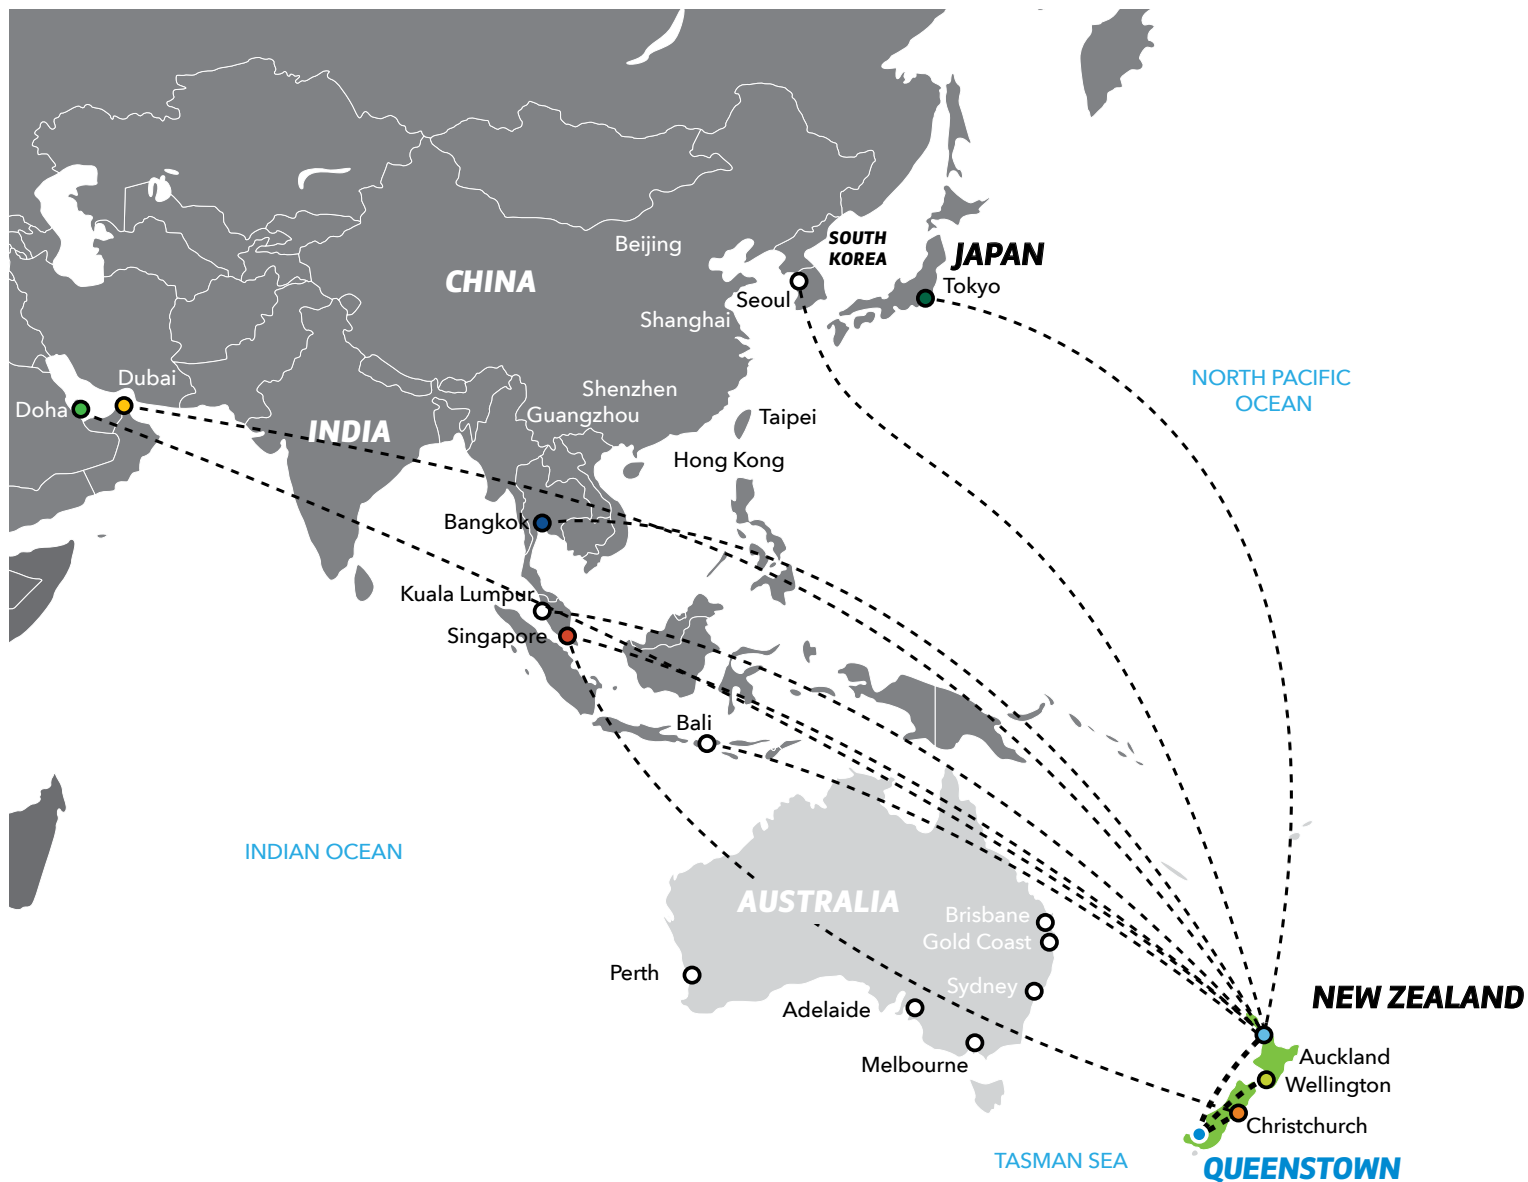

Queenstown has good long-haul connections via Auckland and Christchurch to North and South America, South East Asia, China and some Middle East states. Connections via east coast Australia link to many other long haul destinations.
